

Please do not get rid of the federal no-call list or individual state no-call lists. They help you keep a better quality of life by blocking telemarketers from constantly interrupting our daily lives and activities.